TWO MONTRS OF WAR

We have been accustomed to think of the wealth and strength and power of the United States, and this war has been somewhat disappointing in its effect upon the commerce of the Animal Celebration and Livestock Excountry. Eight weeks have gone by and yet nothing has been done to start the stagnant currency into circula-

At times we wonder if there is on the part of the Northern financlers. Of course they must be conservative, but the country needs encouragement from the money centers. Especially is this true of the South.

The chief thing wrong with this country is not actual, but psychological.

The policy of neutrality does not imply helpless waiting, but to make the world respect us this country must go ahead and show its independence by a courageous effort to make our in dustries and our enterprises even more successful than in the past.

We feel that the channels of com merce on the high seas will soon again be reopened, and then the South will prosper. But is there any ne-cessity to wait until that time?

The worst of the war is over, so far as we are concerned. For the longer these nations fight, the weaker they become, just so in that proportion will increase their disinclination to meddle with United States products in transit upon the seas

GROW MORE OATS

"Grow oats" is the advice that is going out to the farmers of South Carolina from the extension division of Clemson college. W. W. Long, state demonstration agent and director of extension of Clemson college. has distributed throughout the state 10,000 large posters which will herald forth to the farmers of the community the opportunity in oats. This 'er reads:

"What shall take the place of cotton?

"Reed Cats. "1. They require a minimum amount of fertilizer.

"2. Plenty of seed are available.
"3. If war continues, European armies must have horse feed, and they will have to pay our price. "4. If peace is declared oats will furnish a large amount of vegetable matter to be plowed under. "5. Oats will pave the way for more live stock in the future.

"Seed oats in the Piedmont the last of September, other parts of the state in October. Oats sowed at these dates insure success.

AMAZING FIGURES

We get stupified sometimes with reading war statistics and cotton statistics, but just look at this from the Christian Herald:

Few people have any adequate notion of the actual extent of the moving-picture business in America.

Chairman F. C. Howe of the National Board of Censorship of Motion Pic-tures gives these figures: 16,009 to 20, 000 theatres daily entertain from 7,-000,000 to 12,000,000 persons, an aggre-gate of 2,000,000,000 to 3,000,000,000 yearly.

The capital invested is estimated at $15,000,000 and the public spends annually something like $200,000,000. This gigantic business has developed in is signatic business has developed in less than ten years, and is still growing with amazing rapidity. Churches and schools are becoming well represented in it, and the moral character of the films is steadily rising to a higher standard.

Unable to Defend Neutrality

Peking, Sept. 24.—The Chineac government has relied to the protest of Germany against the landing of Japanese troops in China disclaiming responsibility for the violation of her neutrality which she says she is unable to defend.
